RESOLUTION 2002-508

A RESOLUTION OF THE MAYOR AND COMMON COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF CAMP VERDE, YAVAPAI COUNTY, ARIZONA, ADOPTING AN INTERGOVERNMENTAL AGREEMENT WITH YAVAPAI COUNTY FOR MOTOR VEHICLE REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE

WHEREAS, two or more public agencies, as defined by ARS §11-951, including a municipality or a special taxing district, may pursuant to ARS §11-952, through a written and recorded agreement, contract for services, jointly exercise any powers common to the contracting parties, or provide for joint or cooperative actions; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor and Common Council has reviewed the proposed intergovernmental agreement for motor vehicle repair and maintenance from May 1, 2002 through June 30, 2003, and shall be deemed renewed for successive one-year terms as of July 1 of each year unless either party provides written notice to the other party of the intent not to renew no less than sixty (60) days prior to the expiration date of the initial term or any renewal thereof.

NOW THEREFORE, the Mayor and Common Council of the Town of Camp Verde resolve, pursuant to ARS §11-951.H, to execute the intergovernmental agreement with Yavapai County dated April 3, 2002, for motor vehicle repair and maintenance and to allow for its annual renewal by motion as provided therein. Passed and adopted by a majority voted of the Common Council at the Regular Session of April 3, 2002.
