Meeting is set up and begins at 10:15am.

10:15 - 10:40 / Sebra has the TAB choose their favorite furnishings as prospective DIY projects for the new library off of Pinterest. They e-mail them to Sebra, and are printed via Powerpoint.

10:40 - 11:15 / Dianna talks to TAB about:

- Billy and Janine's performances at the Camp Verde Town Council Meeting on Wednesday, May 7th, 2014.
- The lock-in planned on July 12th, an Alice in Wonderland-themed sleepover.
- Angel's blog posting.
- Information regarding the TAB T-shirts; i.e. size, type and color.
- Appropriate behavior around guests.
- Being role models outside of the library as well as in it. This includes school.
- Dates to consider for the Summer Reading Program:
  1. Car Wash, possibly May 23rd.
  2. Ladd's birthday party, May 24th.
  3. Henna Body Art, June 7th.
  4. Alan Dean Foster meet & greet, June 21st.
  5. Melted Crayon Artwork, July 5th.
  6. Batman Day - perhaps wear costumes to library - July 26th.

11:15 - 11:20 / 5 minute recess.

11:20 - 11:40 / Billy and Janine discussed their experiences at the Town Council Meeting, regarding the public's opinion on the new library.

11:40 - 11:45 / Sebra addressed the public image of TAB.

11:45 - 11:48 / Discussed editing Janine's T-shirt graphic to appeal to the printing people. Possible changes to the color and text to seem more visually appealing.

11:48 - 11:56 / Wish List for the Architect suggestions:

- Accordion door / movable wall for the quiet rooms.
- Carpet vs. Tile; Carpet won, is warmer, cheaper, quieter.
- Corrugated metal walls?
- TV screen size, sound, and location.

11:56 - 11:57 / Alex Goetting's Crowdsourcing Presentation is Next Week.

11:57 - 11:58 / Janine is now tasked with policing the ruffians when they misbehave, which, frankly, is often.

Final word / Should the TAB have a role in the 4th of July parade? Maybe we can ride bikes? Or dress ourselves in book outfits?
